

I strongly object to proposed FCC rule changes that will allow more media consolidaton. These rule changes are anti-free market and anti-democratic. Increasing profits for a few large media companies should not be a goal of any democracy. I also object to the process used by the FCC which has limited public input and public disclosure of the wording of the rule changes. I want a democracy - not a corporate oligarchy!